

Trip to the 57th Venice Biennale of Contemporary Art

19-21 May 2017

22-24 September 2017

The most important event in the contemporary art calendar, the Venice Biennale, is upon us again. Untitled Tours is offering a unique opportunity to experience this most vibrant, global event in an inspiring weekend of cutting edge art, sunshine, sea air and enjoyment, all set against the magnificent backdrop of Venice.

The biggest and oldest art exhibition of its kind, the Venice Biennale was established in 1893, and by 1910 had acquired an international reputation as showcase for some of the most inspiring and innovative art in the world. A must-see event ever since; it is hotly anticipated by the international art community as well as art lovers and aficionados from around the globe.

The weekend will be spent exploring the main exhibition venues, soaking up the art and the atmosphere, and dipping into the best of the parallel program that runs alongside. See hidden gems, meet curators and artists and learn more about the intellectual and cultural impact of the artists and their work.

And when the day is done, we will wind down in true Italian style with cocktails and dinner on both Friday and Saturday nights.

A perfect idea for a girls' weekend away, a special birthday celebration, or simply to reconnect with your creative self - this is a trip to Venice with a difference.

Participation fee includes bespoke itinerary and commentary, but excludes travel and accommodation.
